

MARINUS PHARMACEUTICALS HCP & PATIENT PRIVACY NOTICE (“PRIVACY POLICY”)

Effective Date September 2024

INTRODUCTION AND SCOPE:

This Privacy Policy is directed at patients (and/or their care givers, guardians, parents or representatives, collectively “patients”), healthcare professionals (“HCPs”) and other medical professionals such as pharmacists, statisticians, staff or other representatives of medical offices, hospitals, and academic and medical centers (“office staff”) who provide Marinus Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (“Marinus”, “we”, “us”, “our”) with personal information and/or personal data (“Personal Information”) we receive for such purposes including but not limited to: (1) requests for corporate, disease state, marketing, medical, or investor information; (2) participation in clinical trials; (3) participation in speaker programs; (4) participation in patient support programs; (5) providing patient testimonials or other patient related information at Marinus events; (6) participation on advisory boards; (7) drafting publications or other medical materials; (8) safety data reporting; and (9) consulting activities.

This Privacy Policy describes how Marinus uses the Personal Information we collect about you and how to exercise your rights.

As you read this Privacy Policy, please keep in mind the following important information about how this Privacy Policy applies to you:

1. This Privacy Policy contains specific sections that may or may not be applicable to you because of where you are located or the type of Personal Information we collect and maintain about you.
2. This Privacy Policy may be complemented or supplanted by other privacy policies or information notices that tell you how your Personal Information is used and disclosed in certain other contexts. To the extent that those policies or notices are provided, posted and/or referenced, that different privacy policy or notice, and not this one, will apply to the processing of your Personal Information.
3. Our websites, web portals, mobile applications, or other digital services (together, our “websites”) may contain links to third-party websites that we do not operate, control, or endorse. Once you leave our websites, we are not responsible for the protection and privacy of any information you provide. We recommend that you read the privacy policies of these third-party websites, and if needed, contact the third parties directly for information about their privacy practices.

HOW LONG WE RETAIN YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We retain your Personal Information for as long as it is necessary for us to carry out the purposes for which we collected it as set out in this Privacy Policy unless we are required by law to retain it for a longer period of time. When we determine the appropriate retention period for your Personal Information, we consider the amount, nature and sensitivity of the information, the potential risk of harm from unauthorized use or disclosure of the information, the purposes for which we process the information, whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and all applicable legal, regulatory, and compliance requirements.

When we communicate with you via email, send newsletters, or respond to your requests to receive information from us, your information may be kept until you decide to unsubscribe and the information you provide via your requests will be kept a least until their complete processing. We will keep a record of your unsubscribe request for as long as is necessary to comply with that request.

In addition, Marinus will keep your Personal Information:

- In compliance with Marinus' Record Management Policy.
- For the statute of limitation, if needed for evidentiary purposes.
- For the applicable legal retention periods, in particular regarding commercial, compliance and regulatory matters, or any other mandatory retention period (such as a legal hold or investigation).

WHERE WE PROCESS YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION AND HOW WE PROTECT IT

Marinus operates in many countries around the world and your Personal Information may be accessible to or be shared with authorized service providers, Judicial, administrative, and regulatory parties and agents, advisors, consultants, and representatives in various countries for the purposes specified in this Privacy Policy.

Keep in mind that the data privacy and data protection laws or regulations in certain countries may not provide the same level of protection as those in your country or region. When that is the case, and as required by applicable laws, we take legally required steps to protect your Personal Information when transferred to another country or region, such as entering into contracts with recipients of your information and implementing additional safeguards.

While we have established reasonable physical, administrative, and technical measures to protect your Personal Information from unauthorized access or disclosure, we cannot guarantee its absolute security. You should take special care in deciding what information you transmit, upload, send or otherwise submit to us.

YOUR CHOICES AND RIGHTS

You may choose not to provide your Personal Information to us; however, in doing so, you may not be able to continue your relationship or interactions with us or use certain services, e.g., patient support services.

At any time, you can choose to opt out from our marketing communications by using the unsubscribe feature in any marketing email you have received. If you unsubscribe from marketing, we may still send you email communications that are relationship or transactional in nature.

Under certain laws, such as the European Union's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), The Swiss Data Protection Act, The UK Data Protection Act (UK-GDPR), the California Consumer

Privacy Act (CCPA), the California Privacy Rights Act (CPRA) or China's Cybersecurity Law and Personal Information Protection Law (PIPL), including their implementing regulations and national standards, you may have the following rights with respect to your Personal Information:

- Your right of access. You may have the right to ask us to provide clear, transparent, and understandable information on how we process your Personal Information, as well as for copies of your Personal Information. There are some exemptions, which means you may not always receive access to all the Personal Information we have and process about you.
- Your right to rectification. You may have the right to ask us to correct or rectify information you think is obsolete or inaccurate and the right to ask us to complete information you think is incomplete.
- Your right to deletion of your Personal Information. You may have the right to ask us to delete your Personal Information in certain circumstances.
- Your right to restriction of processing. You may have the right to ask us to restrict the processing of your Personal Information, during a limited period of time, in certain circumstances.
- Your right to object to processing. You may have the right to object to certain processing activities, in which case, Marinus will no longer process your Personal Information unless Marinus demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which overrides your interests, rights, and freedoms, such as compliance with a legal obligation or for the establishment, exercise, or defense of legal claims.
- Your right to data portability. You may have the right to ask that we transfer the information you gave us from one organization to another, or give it to you to transfer to another organization.
- Right to withdraw your consent. If we process your Personal Information based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent, without this withdrawal affecting the lawfulness of the processing operations previously conducted.
- Right to close your account. If you receive our services through on-line accounts, you have the right to close your accounts. We will then delete or anonymize your Personal Information associated with your accounts unless we are otherwise permitted to retain your Personal Information under applicable laws.

Depending on your country of residence and the country where the Marinus entity processing your Personal Information is established, you may have additional local rights with respect to our processing of your Personal Information. For example, you may also have the right to raise questions or concerns directly with your local data protection authority. Please note that some of the Personal Information that we collect and process may be exempt from the rights outlined above.

You can submit your request directly to Marinus by sending us an email at: privacy@mariuspharma.com.

We will respond to your requests within the time period prescribed by applicable laws. Under certain circumstances, Marinus may ask you for specific information to confirm your identity and ensure the appropriate exercise of your rights. This is a security measure to safeguard Personal Information. We will notify you when your request is completed, if we deny your request to exercise your rights (because, for example, an exception applies), or if there is a fee associated with processing your request.

You may designate an authorized agent to exercise your rights on your behalf. In such case, we will also need to verify your agent's identity and obtain proof of your authorization. We may need to deny a request from an agent whose identity or authorization we cannot verify.

If you believe that Marinus has processed information in a manner that is unlawful or breaches your rights, or has infringed applicable laws, you may have the right to complain directly to your local data protection authority. Without limiting any rights to complain directly to an authority, we are committed to protecting your Personal Information, and you may also lodge your complaint(s) directly with us.

We will not discriminate against you for exercising any of your rights that you have under applicable data privacy and data protection laws.

REGIONAL AND STATE SPECIFIC PRIVACY NOTICES

CALIFORNIA

If you are a California Consumer, in the past twelve (12) months, we may have collected the categories of Personal Information about you described in the CATEGORIES OF PERSONAL INFORMATION WE COLLECT AND PROCESS ABOUT YOU section of this Policy. That information was collected for the purposes described in the WHY WE PROCESS YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION section of this Policy, and may have been shared with the third parties identified in the WHO WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION WITH section of this Policy.

You can exercise your data subject access rights as described in the YOUR CHOICES AND RIGHTS section of this Policy by sending us an email at: privacy@marinuspharma.com, or you may also call us at (484)801-4670.

Some of the Personal Information that we collect, share, or use may be exempt from California state law because it is regulated by other federal or state laws that apply to us.

We do not sell your Personal Information, and we do not share your Personal Information for internet-based advertising or targeted marketing.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FOR INDIVIDUALS IN THE EUROPEAN UNION (EU)/EUROPEAN ECONOMIC AREA (EEA), UNITED KINGDOM, OR SWITZERLAND

We are required to comply with the European Union's and the United Kingdom's General Data Protection Regulations ("GDPR"), Switzerland's Federal Act on Data Protection (FADP) and similar applicable local laws with regards to certain Personal Information we collect. The data controllers of your Personal Information are the Marinus entities referenced at the beginning of this Privacy Policy. Please contact us if you have any questions about the controller or controllers of your Personal Information at: privacy@marinuspharma.com.

Sensitive Personal Information. We process special categories of Personal Information (e.g., Sensitive Personal Information that reveals racial, sex or ethnic origin, genetic, biometric and health information, political and trade union affiliations, etc.) only where you give us your explicit consent, or when our processing is for scientific research purposes, necessary to meet a legal or regulatory obligation, in connection with the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims, or is otherwise expressly permitted by applicable laws.

If we need to collect your Personal Information by law or under the terms of a contract we have with you and you do not provide the requested information, we may not be able to perform the contract we have, or are trying to enter into with you.

Data Transfers. As part of Marinus’ business activities, it may transfer or provide access to your Personal Information to its affiliates, authorized service providers or collaborators or other third parties in the United States, the European Economic Area, and others that may not provide the same level of protection to your Personal Information as in your country of residence. When we do so, in the absence of an adequacy decision concerning the recipient country, we rely on safeguards such as approved model contracts (for example the EU’s standard contractual clauses or the UK’s international data transfer agreement), after having carried out an assessment of the level of protection of your rights on the territory of the third country where the recipient of your Personal Information is established. For more information about Marinus’s use of the model contracts, please contact us at: privacy@marinuspharma.com.

Your Data Subject Rights. Rights you may have under the GDPR and related regulations with regards to the Personal Information we collect and maintain about you are described in the section YOUR CHOICES AND RIGHTS. Under the GDPR, the exercise of these rights may be limited or delayed dependent upon the legal basis for processing your Personal Information, for example:

LEGAL BASIS	ACCESS	RECTIFICATION	ERASURE	RESTRICTION	INFORMATION PORTABILITY	OBJECTION
Consent	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Withdrawal of consent
Steps prior to entering into a contract			Yes		Yes	No
Contract			Yes		Yes	No

OUR COOKIE POLICY

Cookies, pixel tags, and other trackers (hereinafter “Cookies”) are small files that allow for storing or retrieving information on your browser or your device (computer, tablet, mobile, etc.) when visiting our websites. Cookies are widely used on websites, mobile applications, software, or emails. When you first visit our websites, and again if you delete the Cookies or the Cookies expire or change, you will be asked which Cookies you consent to. In addition to the information below, you may read more about our Cookie Policy on our websites and in our websites’ on-line Privacy Notices.

Cookies do not recognize you personally, but rather the device you use. Cookies simply give information about your browsing activities in order to recognize the device later on in order to improve the browsing experience, save your preferences or even adapt the services offered to you on the websites. To find out more about cookies, including how to see what cookies have been set, visit www.allaboutcookies.org.

We may use the following types of cookies on our websites:

- Necessary Cookies - enable the proper functioning of the websites (security, facilitate browsing, display of the webpage). You may disable Necessary Cookies by changing your browser settings as described below. If you do so, you will still be able to navigate the websites, but some of the websites’ functions may be affected;
- Analytics Cookies - are used to collect information about how visitors use our websites and to improve the websites by collecting information on how you interact with the websites;
 - The cookies collect information in a way that does not directly identify anyone, rather they collect information in an aggregated or generalized statistical form, including the number of visitors to the website and where visitors have come to the website from and the pages they visited.
 - One of the analytic cookies we use is Google Analytics. Google's overview of privacy practices and data safeguards is available at: <https://support.google.com/analytics/answer/6004245>. To opt out of being tracked by Google Analytics across all websites, visit <http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>.
- Social Media Cookies - enable you to interact with social plugins on the websites and share content on social networks; and
- Advertising Cookies - enable the placement of advertisements, to measure their effectiveness and to adapt their content to your browsing and your profile.

Most web browsers allow some control of most cookies through the browser settings. For example, there are simple procedures in most browsers that allow you to delete existing cookies. If you want to set your computer or mobile web browser to reject all cookies by default, please visit the home page for your browser for instructions. If you reject all cookies, you may still use our websites; however, this may affect the functionality of some areas of our websites.

In addition, your Internet Protocol (IP) address (an identifying number that is automatically assigned to your computer by your Internet Service Provider) is identified and logged automatically in our server log files whenever you visit our websites, along with the time(s) of your visit(s) and the page(s) that you visited. We use the IP addresses of all visitors to our websites to calculate website usage levels, to help diagnose problems with the website servers, and to administer the websites. We may also use IP addresses to communicate with or block access by visitors who fail to comply with our Terms of Use.

We do not track our website users over time or across third-party websites to provide targeted advertising. At this time, we do not respond to “Do Not Track” signals from your web browser due to the lack of an established industry standard. For more information about “Do Not Track” signals, please visit <https://allaboutdnt.com/>.
